

Blind & Visually Impaired Awareness Workshop

Kent County Health Department

700 Fuller Ave NE, Grand Rapids, MI

Friday, February 20, 2015, 1:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

This interactive workshop will increase awareness of accessibility differences among people who are blind, visually impaired, and sighted, and will explore implications for emergency preparedness and response.

Speakers

Charis Austin, Client Advocate, Association for the Blind & Visually Impaired

Tom Behler, Professor of Sociology, Ferris State University

Carol Bergman, Safety & Security Coordinator, Clark Retirement Community

Target Audience

Community service providers, public health practitioners, healthcare and long term care providers, firefighters, law enforcement, emergency medical responders, local officials, community members

Please register by Friday, February 13th at this link:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/BVIworkshop>

or call Pat Draper at 616-632-7292

Brought to you by the Kent County Disaster Mental Health and Human Services Committee

